

IABC SELECTS GOLD QUILL AWARD WINNERS FOR 2022

Recipients Recognized for Worldwide Excellence in Communication

CHICAGO, May 4, 2022 — Identifying excellence in 25 separate categories of communication, the International Association of Business Communicators (IABC) announced the winners of the 2022 Gold Quill Awards of Excellence and Awards of Merit.

The Gold Quill Awards are IABC's premier awards program. For more than 40 years, IABC has recognized the work of communication professionals in addressing vital issues and inspiring change.

This year's entrants – like those who preceded them in past years – submitted works of organizational importance and demonstrated a range of skills. A remarkable group of blue-ribbon panelists reviewed the 406 entries from 16 countries. The panels then selected 125 winners, including three student awardees.

“The talent and impact of this year's winners are remarkable,” said Maureen Healey, ABC, and Chair of the IABC 2022 Awards Committee. “My deepest thanks to all those who participated as entrants or blue-ribbon panelists. The work they did this year improves our communication community and the wider world.”

Gold Quill Awards entrants and winners represent the diversity of communications professionals in perspective, experience, geography and personal identity. In addition, their entries come from work conducted in organizations of all sizes including, boutique agencies, startups, consultancies, non-profits, educational institutions, governments and companies.

Please join us at World Conference in New York City on June 28, 2022 as we celebrate exceptional communication work across the globe. More event details will follow.
