

International Association of Business Communicators Gold Quill Awards

Entry Form Preview – Divisions 1, 2, 3 and 4

1. Confirmation that the project and entry were developed in adherence with the IABC Code of Ethics: <https://www.iabc.com/about-us/governance/code-of-ethics/>
2. Division selection
 - a. DIVISION 1: COMMUNICATION MANAGEMENT: The Communication Management division covers projects, programs and campaigns that are guided by a communication strategy. Entries to this division can be submitted by any type of organization, including public and private corporations, governments, non-governmental organizations, not-for-profit organizations, partnerships, cooperatives, and educational institutions. Entrants must demonstrate how their project applied a full range of planning and management skills, including research, analysis, strategy, tactical implementation, and evaluation. Entries may include a wide range of communication materials. (A single tactical execution element that formed part of a communication program may also be entered in the Communication Skills division.)
 - b. DIVISION 2: COMMUNICATION RESEARCH: Entries in this division recognize the importance of research and measurement as a foundation for strategic communication work and a competency that is integral to success throughout the career of a communication professional. A clear understanding of why the research was needed demonstrates its strategic value to an organization.
 - c. DIVISION 3: COMMUNICATION TRAINING AND EDUCATION: This division recognizes the mentorship and education role of consultants and communicators in developing and delivering workshops, classes, seminars or training that educates an audience about any aspect of the communication profession. This division includes all communication disciplines and professional competencies. Entries in this division must demonstrate:
 - i. Alignment of learning outcomes to goals and objectives
 - ii. Alignment of assessments to specific learning outcomes
 - iii. Theories and practices of educational excellence
 - iv. Impact outside the classroom
 - d. DIVISION 4: COMMUNICATION SKILLS: The communication skills division includes marketing and communication elements that showcase technical skills such as editing, writing, design and multimedia production. Entries in this division are generally tactical in nature. Entrants must demonstrate strategic alignment, the creative process and measurable results tied to objectives.
